

RCAA GEO announcement August 19, 2026
Joanne Marttila Pierson

Unless you've been livin' under a rock, you know time is tickin' on the clock
We're counting down to Sept 14, I think you're hip to what I mean.
The golf and entertainment extravaganza, ya – it's gonna be a huge bonanza!
But that'll only happen if me and you, sign up, participate, there are things to do!
What could be better than golf at Barton Hills, the thought of it just gives me the chills!
And the UM students in Music, Theater, and Dance, this will be your only chance!
To hear the students who might someday, quite honestly, be on Broadway*.
You know this is how we raise the money, in order to do our good works, honey.
It's really not all that much work. It's not like we're askin' you to go on stage and twerk!
What can I do, you might say? Well, I will tell you the various ways.
If you golf and wanna beat Buckler & Ouimet, there's still time to get your ringer yet.
Those guys don't need another TV, that's something on which I think we all agree.
Do a sponsorship for a table or a hole. Raisin' lots of dough is our goal.
The auction's another way we bring in the cash, and no, I'm not just talkin' trash.
During the happy hour where you can schmooze, you can go bid on a bunch of booze.
We've got condos and trips to places exotic, actually it's all kinda hypnotic.
There's jewelry, poetry, and airline miles; the proverbial UM sports stuff always brings smiles.
For September 5, two tickets in a suite, UM versus Western, can't be beat.
A wine pull and wines from Michael Roddy, there's also paraphernalia of Rotary.
Massages, personal trainers, and haircuts; you can bid on something, don't be a putz!
My personal favorite, on December 3, you can join me in a shopping spree.
With champagne, charcuterie, oh, tres chic! We'll go downtown to Sandy's Boutique.
What you say? You can't do a thing? You don't golf, you don't eat, you don't wanna hear 'em sing?

Well, I've a simple solution that won't break your neck, you can just simply cut a check!
Now you may know I work with kids with ADD, and I know they don't always listen to me.
So just to be sure that we're all clear, I'll have you repeat it one time, dear.
Please pay attention, I'm not quite through, repeat after me the things you can do.
Sign up to golf and bring a pal. Register for dinner and bring your gal.
Recruit auctions items, there's still time. Bid on auction items oh so fine!
Sponsor something, a table or a tee. Commit to helping out our Rotary!
Now you are clear on what to do, cuz the kids in our community are counting on you.
Rick Jarzembowski is our chair. Don't cause him to lose any more hair!
Step up, sign up, you are what we need, in order to Help Kids Succeed!

*If you don't believe me, look up Maya Boyd. 2024 graduate of the SMTD. Played the leading role in Juliet on Broadway during her senior year; just cast as Storm in the next X-Men movie!
